PRINGLE MINSTREL BASS SOLO MADE HIT IN ROSWELL

Manager of Roswell Show House Wires Manager
Stortz of the Elk's to Tell What a Good Show It Was.

That the Richard and Pringle minstrel show, which is playing here to night at the Elk's opera house made a decided hit in the past place where it played is evidenced by a telegram which was received here this morning from Manager H. P. Black of the Roswell show house, which states that the show was well received in that city. The Armory was crowded with the wire, with an audience which was kept in an uproar from the first curtain. A special feature of the performance and one which made the biggest hit was a bass solo, sung by the funny end man.

The telegram received by Mr. Frank Stortz this morning follows: Roswell, N. M. Nov. 18, 1911.
Mr. Elke Theater,
Dear Sir: Richard and Pringle's minstrels were here last night. Armory was crowded, audience was well pleased with the show.

I take pleasure in recommending them to you; am sure your patrons will be pleased with them.

The bass solo was talked of most of anything. Hoping you good luck and a crowded house, I am, Yours truly,
J. P. BLACK, Armory Mgr.

The seat sale has been unusually good so far, and a full house is expected. In order to allow time to the store folks to be there on time, the curtain will be held until 9 o'clock.

COLORED COUPLE SURPRISE FRIENDS

Member of Minstrel Troupe Springs Surprise on Co-Workers Here Today, When He Takes Bride.

The life of the minstrel, tramping on the road, has many dark spots in it and but little of pleasure. A pleasing touch of romance was given the present tour of Richard and Pringle's minstrels today, by the marriage of George B. Williams to Miss Bertha Gibbons. Miss Gibbons came from El Paso last night to meet her fiancé, but everything was kept very dark as far as letting any of the other members of the troupe into Mr. Williams' secret was concerned. Only Jack Smith, bosom friend and general manager of ceremonies, was let into the know. Today the couple under the guidance of Mr. Smith proceeded to the office of Probate Clerk A. E. Walker and secured the permission of the great new state of New Mexico to wed. Then Mr. Smith, who officiated later as best man, piloted them to the office of Judge W. W. McClellan, who performed the ceremony in which the couple plighted their troth.

Williams plays first cornet in the band and is also a member of the musical troupe which plays in the second part of the entertainment. None of the prenuptial arrangements having been announced to the members of the troupe all were much surprised late this afternoon when Mr. Williams introduced his blushing bride.

She—And you say that you have always avoided blaming me. I'd like to have you mention one instance.

He—With pleasure. I remember, right after we were married, I ate a pie you baked, and when the doctor came I told him it was clams.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

HIGH SCHOOL AND FORENSIC CONTEST INDIANS PLAYED A SNAPPY GAME IN SANTA FE TO DECIDE HONORS

Red Men and the Students of "High" Battle for Championship of Albuquerque at Traction Park.

This afternoon the high school and Indian school football teams played the game that will decide the championship of the city so far as the play-off is concerned. Both teams have trained long and faithfully for the contest and the good work done was evidenced this afternoon in the signal formations and practice kicking done before the game. The Indians had a slight advantage in weight over the high school boys, but the latter had the edge on the red men when it came to speed.

The weather was just cold enough to put a tin edge on the enthusiasm of the players this afternoon, and a fast, snappy game was the result.

IMMORALITY CHARGE AGAINST MOTHER

Insley Babe Consigned to the Care of Colorado State Children's Home Upon Complaint by Agent Rankin.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald) Trinidad, Colo., Nov. 18.—It became known here last night that Edith Insley, the 17-year-old wife of Thomas Insley, convicted of murder in the second degree at Albuquerque, N. M., was summoned into county court here on Wednesday afternoon, and after a hearing by Judge Ross in chambers her one-year-old baby, Flora Bell, was ordered sent to the state home for dependent children, 2335 Washington avenue, Denver.

The girl mother has been staying at room No. 2, White House, West Main and Animas streets, and is charged in the complaint entered against her in the county court with immorality. Her husband has been confined in the county jail at Albuquerque for the past nine months, and during that time his young wife has been rooming down town here, although her parents live on Pine street in Trinidad. Complaint was filed against the mother by W. H.
Rankin, agent of the state home in Denver. It is said that the wife was willing that her child be sent to the state home.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

From time immemorial, sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost every one knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair, for curing dandruff and falling hair, and for making the hair grow.

In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up to date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. The Weyth Chemical company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this sort, called Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If you have dandruff, or if your hair is turning gray or coming out, don't delay, but get a bottle of this remedy today, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

RAISED 200 KINDS OF FOOD.

An Oklahoma Woman Won a $75 Prize for Her Home Products.
Guthrie, Ok., Nov. 17.—Mrs. James Kendall of near Chandler has been awarded a prize of $75 offered by the Lincoln county fair association in a contest for the greatest variety of food. She exhibited samples of two hundred varieties of food raised on her farm in Lincoln county, which could be preserved for the winter.
The samples were taken from the supply in her cellar.

ORPHANED CHILD IS WITHOUT COMFORT

Four Year Old Son of Mrs.
Nasario Sanchez, Who Was Suffocated in Adobe Cave-in Wants His Mother.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald)
Laguna, N. M., Nov. 18.—Little Pedro Sanchez, the only surviving member of the family of Mrs. Nasario Sanchez, who perished in the tragic disaster here Wednesday night is sobbing his little heart out for the mother who will never come back.

Suffocated under tons of earth which completely covered the sleeping family, when the adobe roof of their home gave way, was the fate of Mrs. Sanchez and two children, Agapita and Aniceto Romero. The child, Pedro, protected by his mother's body, was the only one of the household's occupants who escaped, and it was his screaming which brought the aid that came too late.

The girl, Agapita, was the only member of the ill-fated family still alive when the rescuers dug them out, and her injuries were so severe that she died Thursday morning.

Several hours of dirt had been thrown on the roof of the one-room adobe structure the day preceding the accident, and the rotten timbers had been unable to hold up the added strain and their giving away during the night when the family was asleep caused the pitiful tragedy.

was made today to the American Federation of Labor convention by the Socialists for help in their fight to "The Paradise of Mahomet," which will be presented at the Elks theater, Dec. 7, is the vehicle that Manager Daniel V. Arthur in an inspired moment chose for his star, Grace Van Studdford. It is said to be better suited to this popular exponent of the best in light operatic singing than any of her well known and highly successful vehicles in the past.

REFORMED RULES FOR ATHLETICS

Amateur Athletic Union Will Make Many New Regulations to Put Sport on a Higher Plane.

New York, Nov. 18.—Reforms of a radical nature in the policy and constitution of the Amateur Athletic Union will be proposed at the annual meeting in New York November 24. Further conservation of the amateur spirit and character of the athletics fostered by the A. A. U. is the goal aimed at in the proposed reforms, and the athletics whose services practically are bought, by means of inducements which are of the same moral effect as fees, is aimed at, according to officials of the union.

Two rules, in particular, will be proposed. One will provide that an athlete who leaves a club affiliated with the A. A. U. must remain unattached for two years before he will be eligible to membership in a different club.

The second provides that no student in a college or university, either as an under-graduate or post-graduate, may belong to an athletic club other than that of his own college.

Other provisions suggested are that no athlete may engage in a contest under the Amateur Athletic Union rules who has not previously filed with the registration committee of his district a bona fide certificate of four months' residence in that district, nor may he enter a championship contest until he has filed a certificate of residence of six months in the district.

"The object of these rules," an officer in the union, who is interested in the reforms suggested, said today, "is to remove the scandal threatening the Amateur Athletic union every now and then. There is no denying that when a small club develops a good athlete there is a rush by the big and wealthy organizations to take him away from the club."

"This means professionalism in a truly vilified form, since it gets clubs bidding against each other, and encourages the athlete to lend himself to the organization making him the best offer. It prevents the small club that brought him out from profiting by the find." This condition is found in purely athletic clubs as well as in colleges, and it is the condition desired to have stamped out. The new rules are designed to make it impossible.
